George Zekveld, our guest speaker, was born in 1957 and raised on a farm near Lindsay, Ontario. He attended Clearwater Christian College in Clearwater Florida and graduated in 1979 with a BA in History and Bible. There, George met his wife, an American from Pennsylvania and was married in 1979. He spent most of his working career in agricultural-related industries dealing with farm fertilizers and chemicals and then packaging and distribution of turf grasses and farm seeds. In the year 2000, George was hired by Mariposa Dairy, and became a goat cheese maker. Recently his two daughters moved to Ottawa and in order to move closer geographically, he took a job as the office administrator for the Christian Heritage Party in September 2017, where he now works from his home office in Ottawa. George has four children and three grandchildren, with one another on the way.
