welcome Ugo and Ngozi Kejeh and their infant daughter Nmachi Faith, whose baptism is being celebrated today. Ugo and Ngozi invite the congregation to join in a celebration dinner today at 4 pm at the Tom Brown Arena 141 Bayview Rd. Ottawa.

We welcome today members of EXSSA-Canada, members of the alumni association of Saker Baptist College, Victoria, Cameroon, who are in Ottawa for their annual reunion, this year hosted by two members of Parkwood Church, Dolly McKyes and Olivia Meyia-Takoukam, and welcome their participation in our worship service this morning. Their president, Dr. Lucy Ngole, from Toronto, is reading the scriptures today, and the group will contribute music in praise. Everyone is invited to join them in a special reception after worship in our Fellowship Hall.

We would like to express our sincere sympathy to the family of Adeline Mushi who died in Africa on August 1st. Adeline enthusiastically supported the Goats for Grannies initiative in which the Parkwood choir participated.
