Notes & comments

We express our sympathy to Pamela and Don Pestaluky on the passing of Pamela's father Allen Parker last Sunday in Belleville. A memorial service will be held today in Belleville.

Salaam Ministries November 18, 2018

The fourth special appeal of 2018 by the Mission Team will be next Sunday. Muslims from many places are seeking more than what they have been told to believe. Millions watch Christian content on TV and the Internet. Many come to Christ but, as noted by Nelson Wolf of Salaam Ministries in a minuteman talk a couple of weeks ago, many later return to Islam or perhaps give up believing at all because no one has helped them along the road by encouraging them in their new faith journey. Please read more on Salaam Ministries in the November Pulse, to see the contrast between what the Bible and Koran say about Jesus.

Canada has a significant Muslim population. The reason for Salaam Ministries is to equip believers to make disciples, as Jesus would, among Muslims wherever they live. Salaam Ministries is a registered Canadian charitable organization. Copies of their latest annual report will be available after the Sunday service on 18 November, if you would like to know more. Please prayerfully consider donating to this ministry and partner with them to help them know more about Jesus and what the Bible teaches about him.

Mark your offering envelope on the "other" line for Salaam Ministries.

Operation Christmas Child Shoe Box Project.

The Mission Team would like to thank everyone who participated in this year's Shoe Box project. Your support will make a wonderful difference for children, families and communities in the developing world by sharing God's love through His Son, the Lord Jesus, and letting them know they are not forgotten. For many children, your shoe box is not only the first gift they will ever receive but also the only such new items they will ever receive. Still, even more important than the items inside the shoebox is the opportunity to share God's love – and the Good News of Jesus Christ – with Children in need.

This year our Parkwood Church family partnered together and contributed 61 Christmas Child Shoe Boxes.
