MISSION MOMENT

Bishar, a 13-month-old boy from Sudan, was diagnosed by a community healthcare worker from Trocaire with severe malnutrition and referred to the hospital.

There, he received dedicated care and medical intervention and was soon allowed to return home. Bishar's recovery brought hope to his family. His mother expressed immense gratitude for the staff's dedication and the hospital's assistance in saving her son's life. PWS&D supports Trocaire through its ecumenical collaborations with Canadian Foodgrains Bank.

60th Anniversary History Wall

One of our 60th anniversary projects is to create a history wall in the Parkwood Church building. Do you have creative ideas as to what this should look like? Do you enjoy producing graphics? All suggestions are welcome.

Please speak to Alta MacFie jamacf@bell.net if you are able to be of help. She would like to gather a few people together to work on this project
